MANIFESTING MONEY: AN EXECUTION PLAN

This execution plan aims to give you a timeline, goals and action items to work on as you manifest your ideal financial situation.

STEP 1: GET RID OF LIMITING BELIEFS

Goal: Shift your emotions.
Tools: Affirmations. Think of all the reasons you genuinely love money. For example, “I love money because it gives me freedom.” But it's important to make sure the list reflects your thoughts.
Timing: 1-7 days.
TIP: When creating affirmations, remember that you can also integrate them into a workout or set them as reminders on your phone.

STEP 2: SET A CLEAR INTENTION

Goal: Specificity.
Tools: Dream board. Play around with your specific intention—try 5-10 different ways of wording it. When something feels right and your intention is set, make it into a dream board. Also, use this to work your intention into everything you do with the Law of attraction.
Timing: 3-14 days.
TIP: Look around for template dream boards and inspirational examples. Don't be afraid to go online whenever you're creating, too.

STEP 3: ACTIVELY RESPECT AND LOVE MONEY

Goal: Live as if...
Tools: Living "in the knowing." Get a new wallet or empty your current one of anything that's irrelevant. Think of it as creating a sanctuary for your intentions.
Timing: 14-30 days.
TIP: Consider 'smelling' money every day—when you expose your brain to this directive odor, you come into a kind of vibrational alignment with money.

STEP 4: TUNE INTO YOUR INTUITION

Goal: Identifying intuitions.
Tools: Visualization.
Timing: 7-14 days.
TIP: Look out for coincidences, unexpected invitations, new invitations—basically, anything that viscerally triggers a sense of excitement or possibility is probably something you've been sent in order to guide you to abundance.

STEP 5: LET GO AND TRUST THE UNIVERSE

Goal: Letting go.
Tools: Gratitude journal.
Timing: 7 days.
TIP: In your gratitude journal to ensure you feel good about every day and appreciate all the small steps on the road to your ideal life.

Remember: once you've set clear intentions and committed to practicing the appropriate manifestation techniques every day, you've done absolutely everything you can do to set your dreams in motion.
